02. Apple Inc. 01/19 - present
PRODUCT DESIGN: IWORK, SIRI (AI/ML)

I lead projects that enhance the user experience of Apple's productivity apps, across Mac, iOS, web, and visionOS. Formerly the Directly Responsible Individual for the design of Siri Studio: a suite of tools enabling designers, writers, and machine learning engineers to work together on Siri experiences.

PullString Inc. 01/18 - 01/19
HEAD OF DESIGN

PullString empowered brands and their agencies to design rich, compelling and human conversations with the technology that surrounds us. Entrusted with the ground-up design of our flagship product, I worked in close collaboration with our Product and Engineering leadership to meet customer needs. In addition to being hands on in every aspect of the development process, I managed our design resources.

AlphaSense, Inc. 06/15 - 05/17
DIRECTOR OF DESIGN

AlphaSense is the leader in intelligent search for the financial industry, with products for desktop and mobile. As Director of Design I participated in every aspect of the product development process, working closely with our product managers, developers, and executives to deliver on our vision. In addition to personally creating strategy, detailed interaction/visual design and product specifications, I built and managed our design team.

Entangled Ventures 03/14 - 05/15
VICE PRESIDENT OF DESIGN

Entangled Ventures builds and invests in companies in educational technology. I supported our various portfolio companies by acting as their Head of Design—consulting into their product design, development, research, and hiring processes.

Daniel Kuo Consulting 04/10 - 01/19

Adspace Networks Inc. 04/03 - 12/04
MOTION GRAPHICS DESIGNER

03. I am a design leader with over 20 years of experience shipping digital products. I specialize in creating delight from complexity.

I have led design efforts (internally, and as a consultant) over a wide range of domains, including: AI, medical, financial, enterprise, and consumer products—for both existing and emerging hardware platforms.

I'm adept at managing clients, building teams, collaborating with cross-functional partners, and mentoring design staff.

I trained as a photographer and have worked with small, medium, and large formats, in both film and digital systems.
